Report Format

1. Front Page
2. Introduction
3. Problem Statement
4. Specific Requirements
    a. Functional requirements
    b. Non-functional requirements
5. Context Level Diagram and Data Flow Diagram
6. System Specifications
    a. Hardware specifications
    b. Software specifications
7. Tools Used
    a. Selenium
    b. TestNG
8. Sample Screenshots
9. Output Reports
    a. Emailable report
    b. Index report
    c. XSLT report
10. Conclusion

General Guidelines:

1. Lab evaluation will begin from Apr 27, 2026.
2. Only one report (spiral/tape bound) per team needs to be submitted.
3. Report should contain maximum of 20 pages.
4. Times New Roman 12 point font has to be used throughout the running text.
5. The line spacing in the main text should be 1.5.